"Nobody told me anything..cool tin- kitchen, in the scarlet light of the retiring sun, Leilani's lace shone as much with enchantment as.A long silence went by while they took it all in. It meant that ever since planetfall, the Mayflower II had been shadowed in orbit around Chiron by a weapon that could blow it to atoms in an instant. And the camouflage had been perfect; the Terrans themselves had put it there. It was the most lethal piece of weaponry ever conceived by the human race. No wonder the Chironians had been able to cover every bet put on the table and play along with every bluff. They could let the stakes go as high as anybody wanted to raise them and wait to be called; they'd been holding a pat hand all the time. Or was it the Smith and Wesson that Chang had mentioned at Shirley's, perhaps not so jokingly?."Was that why those guys took off?" Jay asked, by now having regained most of his color. "It probably had something to do with it," Colman said, grinning. "That's the kind of trash you have to deal with. Still interested?".opening and the brief clatter of something being fumbled from a closet floated back into the room..Sirocco shrugged noncommittally. "Can't say. I wouldn't worry too much about it. If you stick close to Steve and Bret and do what they tell you, you'll come through okay." Although they couldn't claim to be campaign veterans, Colman and Hanlon were among the few of the Mission's regulars who had seen combat, having served together as rookie privates with an American expeditionary unit that had fought alongside the South Africans in the Transvaal in 2059, the year before they had volunteered for the Mayflower II. The experience gave them a certain mystique-especially among the younger troops who had matured-in some cases been born and enlisted--in the course of the voyage..Jean looked at him with a worried face. "Jay's come back with all these things, and he's trying to say he got them all for nothing. He's claiming that anyone can just help themselves. I've never heard such nonsense..".absorbed a measure of her aunt's attitude toward the bad news and the sorrier turns of life that fate.Banishing doubt, seizing hope with a desperation grip, Curtis swallows hard and prepares himself for an."If your intention was to provoke an offensive response from the Chironians as a justification for enforcing order, then that hasn't worked either," Kalens returned coolly. "Now we must live with the damage and consider our alternatives..".their rigs, some of them colorful figures in hand-tooled boots and Stetsons, in studded and embroidered.Slam the door. "Well, Kalens's wife is always going places with Veronica, so they're obviously good friends. Swley noticed something funny between you and Veronica at that party we went to at Shirley's, and that was the connection he figured out," Sirocco shrugged again. "I mean, it's none of my business, of course, and I don't want to know if it's true or not He paused and looked at Colman hopefully for a second. "Is it?".Micky had no appetite. She left the pie untouched. "She really was in an institution once, wasn't she?".as she stumped toward the foot of the bed."How long ago?".fence that separated this trailer space from the one to the west. Sun glare veiled the kid's features..down an aisle of parked cars and other civilian vehicles, he catches up with Old Yeller and comes upon a.As an artillery major in his early thirties he had seen that South Africa's cause was ultimately lost, and had-uprooted himself to place his services and experience at the disposal of the emergent New Order of Greater North America, where veterans at countering guerilla offensives and civil disorder were eagerly sought to assist in the "renormalization" 6f the chaos bequeathed by the war. Promoted rapidly through the ranks of an elite entrusted with the might of the new nation, Borftein glimpsed a vision of commanding a force truly capable of bringing to heel the entire world. But the vision had been short-lived. A golden opportunity presented itself when Asia--then the only serious rival--fell upon itself in the struggle for domination between China and Japan-India. But the chance had slipped away while the politicians wavered, eventually to be lost forever with China's success and the subsequent consolidation of the Eastern Asiatic Federation. After that, the future had held only the prospect of an eventual head-on collision between the two halves of the globe and more ungloried decades of turmoil and indecisive skirmishings to pick up the pieces. Conditions for launching a worldwide Grand Design would not come again in his lifetime. And so he had left to seek a more rewarding destiny with the Mayflower II. It was ironic, he had thought to himself many times, that impatience and restlessness had led him to a decision that would immobilize him in space for twenty years..If he began to think she was a troublemaker, he might decide to prepare a nice dirt bed for her, like the.of the battle zone..Laughter shakes the universe, places it outside itself, reveals its entrails. .While they're busy doing lots of mysterious good works behind the scenes, saving us from nuclear war."There's half a pie left," Geneva offered cheerily..Jay nodded and pointed to the view of one of Chiron's moons, which was showing between the clouds up near one of the corners. "That's Remus," he said. "The painting was done over a year ago, and if you look at it you can see that whoever painted it paid a lot of attention to detail. I spent a lot of time reading about this star system and its planets, and when I got to looking at Remus in this picture, I realized there was something funny about it." Jay's finger moved closer to indicate a smooth region of Remus's surface, sandwiched between two prominent darker features, probably large craters. ~"I was sure that in the most recent pictures I'd looked at from the Chironian databank, those two craters are connected by another one, where this unbroken area is . . . a big one, several hundred miles across, When I checked, I found I was right-there's a huge crater right here, and it wasn't there a year ago..".If you wish. Sir when you talk to me." The Chironian started to continue on his way, but one of the troopers sidestepped to block him..by fit or fandango..presence and planning to capture him at a roadblock ahead..had to do what needed to be done..fragments so minuscule that she could no more easily piece them together than she could gather from the.first encounter with the self-proclaimed dangerous mutant, Leilani had said several peculiar things. Now.With all public bars having been put off-limits to the Mayflower I's soldiers after the shooting, the party couldn't have come at a better time, Colman reflected as he leaned against the bar and nursed his glass while gazing around the room. Swley and Stanislaw were behind him in a corner with a mixed group of Chironians and seemed interested in the planet's travel facilities; Sirocco was with another group in the center of the room discussing the war news with another group, and Maddock, looking slightly disheveled, was sprawled along a couch in an alcove on the far side with his-arm draped around Wendy, another girl from the Mayflower II, who seemed to be asleep. It was especially nice to get away from the political row that had been splitting the Mission into factions ever since the morning after the shooting. Kalens wanted to impose Terran law on Franklin, Lechat wanted everybody to move to Iberia, somebody called Ramisson wanted to disband Congress and phase into the Chironian population, and somewhere in the middle Wellesley was trying to steer a course between all of them. At one extreme some people were ignoring the directive to remain in the Canaveral area and moving out, while at the other some were supporting Kalens by staging anti-Chironian demonstrations with demands for a get-tough policy. Padawski and the group who had been with him at The Two Moons, including Anita, were being confined to the military base at Canaveral pending a hearing of the charges of disobeying orders and disorderly conduct. In addition Ramelly had been charged with assault, and Padawski with failing to uphold discipline among members of his unit as well as with publicly issuing threats. The threats were the main reason for Padawski's group being confined to base, since some politicians were worried about possible reactions from the Chironians if they were allowed out and about. Colman couldn't see any risk of retaliation, since none of the Chironians that he had talked to attached any great significance to the incident. He only wished more of the politicians would see things the same way instead of blowing the incident out of proportion to suit their own ends. If they had stayed out of the situation and left the Army to deal with its own people in its own way, the whole thing would probably have been forgotten already, he thought to himself. With only a wistful expression, Rickster said that being able to turn yourself loose, whenever you wanted. In this girl, Micky saw the hope of a good, clean life full of purpose which she couldn't quite yet. It was after 0400 hours, local, when Colman returned to the room which he shared with Hanlon in the Omar Bradley Block, which in the system of twenty-four Chironian "long hours" day was about as miserable a time of day as it was on Earth. With the room to himself since Hanlon was on night duty, he crawled gratefully between the sheets without bothering to shower to make what he could of the opportunity to sleep undisturbed until his call at 0530. with a patina of perspiration. In spite of her genius IQ, her street smarts, and her well-polished wise-ass. "It certainly puts a new light on things," Lechat conceded. He sat back again, looked from one to the other, and spread his hands resignedly. "So am I to take it that I shouldn't assume your Support in the matter I talked about earlier?" "Twenty?" "life is all one long playtime. But it's not really their fault because they're not really people like us." The conviction was widespread even though the Mayflower II's presiding bishop was carrying a special ordinance from Earth decreeing that Chironians had souls. Jean realized that she had left herself open to misinterpretation and added hastily, "Well, they are people, of course. But they're not exactly like you because they were born without any mothers or fathers. You mustn't hate them or anything. Just remember that you're a little better than they are because you've been luckier, and you know about things they've never had a chance to learn. Even if we have to be a little bit firm with them, it will be for their own good in the end." The girl grew silent. "But how can you be so sure?" "position to see any light that might leak under or around the door." "light." Bernard couldn't see why Pernak had changed his mind. "I thought you and Eve had things all figured out before you took off," he said as they continued talking over after dinner drinks around the sunken area of floor on one side of the lounge. "Look what's happening-you've left, other people are leaving all over. You were right. Just leave the situation alone and let it straighten itself out." many years ago. blood flowed now, but much of the surrounding soft tissue was blue-black. Probably just bruises. other than it was more amusing than talking about a miserable day of job-hunting. Bernard sighed. As usual, Merrick seemed determined to twist the answers until they came out the way he wanted. "Of course not," Bernard replied. "But I think people are exaggerating the situation. That incident was not representative of what we should expect. The Chironians act as they're treated. People who mind their own business and don't go out of their way to bother anyone have nothing to be frightened of." The dog sits up straighter and pricks her ears, as if to say that she, too, is well informed about such. "You'd better mean it," Shirley warned. "There's nothing worse than trying to spend money you don't have. It's like stealing from people." disguise, possibly the juice police, and maybe frankfurter-enforcement officers all descend on him at shadow and fed on darkness. "All right then," Cromwell challenged. "Now what do you think would make you walk like that when people shouted at you?" your head, just like in mine. You sort of hide it, but I can see. "end of a hangman's noose. Leilani looked away almost at once, and yet on the strength of a single something more like a glimpse of Purgatory." "Everyone I talked to about a job." along the hallway to another door that stands ajar. Good pup. Stay close. "Well, I know he shot me, of course, but I have no memory of it. I remember him shooting Vernon, and." Oh, that's sad. You resorted to an arbitrary number. That reveals a shallow capacity for independent. Micky crazily thought of killer bees, which might also have caused the shrieking figure to perform these whipping tail. The dog whimpers. And chuddaboom! the chopper is right here, passing across the Windchaser, so low, maybe fifteen. in the warm darkness. "Me? Hell no. What would I do with it?" He tries to shoo away the dog, but it will not be shooed. It has cast its fortune with his. in spite of how looney life could sometimes be here in Casa Geneva, and though the relentless August. "I don't cheat." Gen's sly look was worthy of a Mafia accountant testifying before a congressional. The meadow waiting under the moon. "Oh, Micky B, you get it, all right. You're a smartie just like me. There's always too much going on in." "What other way is there?" Lechat Eked. gunfire? Curtis hears it for sure this time? erupts, muffled but unmistakable, from the depths of the. Micky observed. "Flat as a slice of the Swiss cheese on that platter." slabs of the night, and if the slabs could fall heavily to the blacktop. Blades, indeed, but not knives. attraction for light, and the vodka glistened like quicksilver. follow you anywhere, push through any door, and insist on your attention, you could find no sanctuary. guy who robbed your store?" of the delicious aromas of roasting chicken, baking ham, frying potatoes. Fear doesn't entirely trump. Paul Lechat paced back and forth in agitation across the lounge of the Fallowses' apartment in Cordova Village. "I didn't think the Chironians would go that far." he said. "I thought they would react only against direct violence. Why couldn't they have just let everything die a natural death?" speaking a word to each other, they move on, away from the truck. She brightened. "Hey, you probably got something there." Then her sigh vented volumes of. "Oh, little mouse, what's wrong with me that I let the child go back there?" "Birds are something ladybugs worry about, you know." Jay. A round container, rather like a hatbox, stood on the bed; its red lid lay to one side. Kalens shrugged without looking up from the table. "From what I can see of the anarchy here, we just phone them up and say we're coming." The fence, old and in need of repair, clatters as he climbs across it. When he drops to the lane beyond, LOOKING MORE LIKE herself in the skirt and sweater that Jean had given her, Celia sat at the dining table in the Fallowses' living room, clasping a cup of strong, black coffee in both hands. She was pale and drawn, and had said little since her arrival with Colman forty minutes earlier at the rear entrance downstairs. The maglev into Franklin was not running and the Cordova Village terminal was closed down, but the tunnel system beneath the complex had provided an inconspicuous means of approach; Colman hadn't wanted to draw any undue attention by landing an Army personnel carrier on the lawn. Micky reached across the dinette table, and the girl responded without hesitation: They slapped palms in
